of Marines at Philadelphia, under command of Capt. Logan Feland, will camp at Love Point, on Kent Island, in Chesapeake bay, during the months of July and August. This is a mine company, and the Delaware river in the vicinity of Philadelphia is not suitable for giving the company practice in mine work. For that reason it was necessary to hold the practice elsewhere, and the location in Chesapeake bay is considered as having the necessary advantages.

The headquarters and 1st Regiment and possibly some of the six companies of the 2d Regiment of Marines, now at Philadelphia, are to camp at Mount Gretna, Pa., during the month of September. There the command Mount Gretna, Pa., during the month of September. There the command will be put through target practice, field exercises, etc.

During the same month the field artillery battalion of marines stationed at Annapolis. Md. will be at the army field artillery camp at Tobyhanna, Pa., for target practice and training.
